Chevrolet originally used letters and numbers to signify truck drive type and size. The letter K meant that the truck was four-wheel drive, and the number 10 meant that the truck was a half-ton. In 1973, Chevrolet adopted a new design for its pickups. This body style, known as the rounded line, was used for both C and ...

The 1995 Ford F-800 truck was used for commercial and industrial applications. It could be customized to fit either a flatbed or a standard semi-truck trailer, and could also be shortened if the driver does not require as much space. It could also accommodate add-ons such as cherry-pickers and hook-and-ladder sets.
